

Field Names	Fitz Partners Fund Charges Field Names Definitions (1/4)
PromoterName	The fund promoter is the person, group of persons or company that launches the investment fund and determines its business profile.
PromoterOrigin	The country of origin of the promoter.
Domicile	The term domicile refers to the jurisdiction in which the fund has been set up (eg: Luxembourg, Dublin, UK...)
UmbrellaName	The umbrella fund is a collective investment scheme established by a promoter that exists as a single legal entity but contains several distinct sub-funds, which are traded as individual investment funds.
ProductName	The name of the Product (or sub-fund). Filtering on this Product name will return all Share classes for a particular sub-fund.
FundName	The name of the fund, labelled with share class names. Subfunds are often broken into share classes - Fitz Partners would create separate share classes when those share classes have a difference in fee structures.
Fund/ClassType	These are the share class types labelled according to Fitz Partners' own class types: Retail, Additional Retail, Clean, Institutional, Contingent Deferred Sales Charge (CDSC), Dedicated, Master, Pension, Internal.
CleanSubType	Describes whether a clean share class is dedicated to larger 'wholesale' distributors. Sometimes referred as the 'super clean share class', a Clean Wholesale class would be charged a further discounted management fee than the "primary" clean class.
MinInv(US$)	Describes the minimum investment for this share class, converted into USD when stated in a different currency.
FixedFee	Defines a fee structure that is considered 'fixed'. Either all-in management fee or management fee and fixed administration fee. For these share classes, we would expect the OCF to stay at the same level over several consecutive years.
TotalCap	Describes the presence of a cap on total expenses (TER or OCF).
AdminCap	Describes a cap in administration fees.
FundID	Fitz Partners' unique identifier.
AssetClass	Describes the particular type of assets which the fund invests into. Asset classes are based on the review of funds' portfolios disclosed in their audited accounts.
AssetSubtype	Describes a "third pillar" in investment style in between fully active and passive portfolio management. This filter highlights active funds using Quant techniques ("Quant") and tracking funds that aim to enhance an index ("Enhanced").
InvestmentArea	Fitz Partners classify a funds' investment area according to the sector or region in which it invests. Our general rule is a threshold of 80% in order to be classified as a particular investment area.
ReportType	Indicates whether the financial report used for our fee calculations is annual (A) or semi-annual (S). The vast majority of Fitz Partners calculations are based on audited annual reports.
ReportDate	The fiscal year-end date of the audited accounts on which Fitz Partners fee calculations are based.
LatestTER	An identifier of historical and current fee data. "Latest" would indicate that the calculations are the latest available, "Supp" identifies historical data series.
AccountingYear	The accounting period (year-end) on which the calculations have been made.

Days	The number of days covered by the accounts on which the fee calculations have been made. NB: Fitz Partners would not calculate fees for share classes that have been running for less than 90 days.
ClosingNetAssets(US$)	Net asset value in US dollars as at funds accounting year end.
AverageNetAssets(US$)	Average Net Asset Value on which fee calculations have been based.
NetFlow(US$)	(Subscription - Redemption) - the Net Cash flow is mainly used to explain and support a larger or smaller than expected difference between the closing TNA and the average TNA.
Mgmt%	Describes share class management fee.
Admin%	Describes fund administration costs. These may include registration fees, valuation fees, accounting fees, transfer agency fees or shareholder servicing fees.
Custody%	Describes custody costs. These may include custodian and trustee fees and any handling charges.
Audit%	Describes audit costs and supervisory fees.
Professional%	Describes professional costs, these may include legal fees and other professional fees.
Distribution% ^	Describes distribution costs as a percentage of the average net assets charged as a stand alone separate fee.
Taxe d'abonnement% ^	The subscription tax paid by funds domiciled in Luxembourg as a percentage of average net asset value (currently at 0.05% or 0.01%).
Other%	Describes any other costs charged to cover expenses as a percentage of the average net asset value. These may include insurance, regulatory fees, marketing fees, agents fees and other expenses. This does not include any performance fees, brokerage fees, custody transaction fees or any capital expenses such as: bank or loan interest.
Subsidy%	Describes the percentage of the average net asset value that has been reimbursed to the fund, possibly due to the asset manager waiving some or all management fees or any other fees or reimbursing fees that would have gone over a set fee cap.
TER%	The 'total expense ratio' - the cost of management, administration, custody, audit and professional fees, and 'other' fees netted with any subsidies - calculated as a percentage of the net asset value. Note that this might not include custody transaction fees. Any brokerage fees or performance fees would be excluded from the TER also.
CustTransaction%	Describes the percentage of the average net assets charged to cover custody transaction fees (handling charges) when disclosed outside the custody expenses.
OCF%	The 'ongoing charges figure' - all of the costs taken into account in the total expense ratio plus any custody transaction fees, calculated as a percentage of the total net asset value of the share class. The OCF excludes brokerage, performance or stock lending fees.
Brokerage% ^	Describes known brokerage costs as a percentage of the average net asset value.
Performance%	Describes the performance fee charged for the current period as a percentage of the average net asset value of the share class.
